CODE OF CONDUCT

The UBC Recreation Code of Conduct is intended to identify the general standards of conduct for all UBC Athletics and Recreation staff, participants, and spectators. It is the responsibility of all parties to familiarize themselves with, and understand their obligation to the code of conduct.

Individuals are expected to:

- Treat themselves, staff, spectators, and other participants with respect. Bullying, threatening, and harassing behavior will not be tolerated.

- Promote an inclusive environment in which differences are valued.
- Conduct themselves in a safe manner and avoid causing harm to anyone. Neither participation under the influence of drugs or alcohol nor possession of weapons, drugs, and other illegal or banned items will be tolerated.
- Be fair, forthright, and courteous in relation to others. Misrepresenting oneself will not be tolerated.
- Respect all UBC property and the property of others.

- Follow all UBC Recreation policies and procedures.
- Seek direction if there is a question about compliance with UBC Recreation policies.

Any behavior deemed to violate the Code of Conduct can lead to removal, suspension, termination of privileges or any other penalty as deemed appropriate. The breach of UBC Recreation's Code of Conduct will be investigated fairly and without bias. Refunds will not be given for loss of privileges due to breach of Code of Conduct.
